

SCHOLAR'S PLEDGE

I, a PSHS scholar, recognize the role of the school as an extension of the family and an integral part of the society. I realize the need to contribute to a general sense of order, discipline and harmony that is crucial to the learning process and the efficient functioning of the school system. I, therefore, pledge to uphold the following principles of the Code of Conduct that shall govern my deportment and stay in the PSHS.

- (1) Pursuit of Truth. Truth implies and encompasses the values of integrity and respect. A scholar is always honest in thoughts, words, and deeds. He/She demonstrates honesty, responsibility, humility, self-respect, modesty and decency.
- (2) Passion for Excellence. A scholar always goes beyond what is expected, is determined to do his/her best at every opportunity, and is committed to achieving outstanding performance in all undertakings. He/She exemplifies analytical thinking, open-mindedness, creativity, resourcefulness, and steadfastness.
- (3) Commitment to Service. A scholar uses his/her talents to render service to God, country, and fellowmen for the betterment of the society. He/She exhibits generosity and compassion; courtesy and respect for others; respect for property; loyalty to the school; and stewardship.

I am fully aware of the possible consequences of my actions which may be deemed contrary to the ideals of the above-cited Code. I shall accept the appropriate disciplinary sanctions that may be imposed on me after due process, which may be any of the following:

- (1) Verbal correction or oral/written reprimand;
- (2) Suspension of privileges commensurate to the offense committed;
- (3) One to ten days suspension;
- (4) Termination of scholarship grant; and
- (5) Other sanctions decided by the disciplinary authorities.
